

Auxins and Cytokinins in Plant Development 2023

... and cross-talk with other phytohormones in interactions with the changing environment
International Symposium 2023

Dear Symposium Participants,
Dear Partners and Exhibitors,

On behalf of the Local Organizing Committee for the 10th Auxins and Cytokinins in Plant Development Symposium, we would like to thank you for registering for the upcoming ACPD 2023, which will be held in "Conference Centre City" in Prague, Czech Republic from June 25–29, 2023.

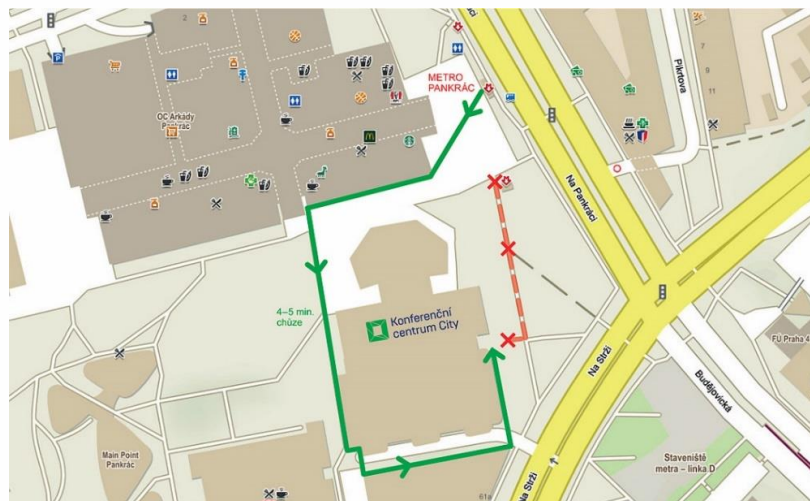

VENUE

Conference Centre City (Konferenční Centrum City)

Na Strži 1702/65,
140 00 Prague 4,
Czech Republic
Website: www.kc-city.cz

The Conference venue is easily accessible by both public and private transport. It has an ideal location and proximity to the Pankrác metro station (just 150 m away) and less than a minute car access from the highway (D1) provide visitors comfort and a stress-free arrival.

The main entrance to the venue is located on the left side of the City Empiria building when viewed from the Arkády shopping centre and is marked with the sign City Conference Centre (Konferenční Centrum City). It is necessary to go around the building, see the map below. Parking is possible in the Arkády shopping centre, located next to the CCC.

For more information on how to reach the City Conference Centre, please visit HERE.
